POLICIES

Care & Rehabilitation Policy

It is the ultimate objective of the Northern Tablelands Wildlife Carers Inc. to rehabilitate sick, injured or orphaned native wildlife and release them back into the wild. With the help of our resident veterinarians, training courses, reference material and experienced members and in compliance with National Parks and Wildlife Service (NSW) policy, we aim for a high success rate.

- a) Carers must at all times hold a current authority issued in accordance with the general licence granted to the Association by the N.P.W.S. and attend a training course once each year during the first three years of Authorised membership.
- b) Members are required to maintain complete and accurate records of animals in their care and submit them regularly and/or relate progress to the co-ordinators.
- c) Permission must be obtained before entering private property and whilst there all care should be taken to respect the person's property and rights.
- d) Authorised Members should not carry out a rescue if they feel it could cause injury to themselves or other persons, or the wildlife involved. In such cases refer to co-ordinators to seek more experienced help and /of equipment.

- e) As rescued animals are wild and under stress, members should not allow any unnecessary handling.
- f) Members should refer cases of animal abuse to the coordinators, and endeavour to educate the caller in the correct manner of rescuing or holding the animal until we can attend.
- g) Members should remember that N.T.W.C. Inc. is grateful to veterinarians who offer their services. Members are requested not to make excessive demands or expect preferential treatment.
- h) For the welfare of the animal, authorised members will have facilities suitable for the animals in their care.
- i) Authorised Members should not transport animals in their care outside N.S.W. for treatment or other reasons without consultation with the co-ordinators or National Parks & Wildlife Service (NSW).

Release Policy

One of Northern Tablelands Wildlife Carers Inc. aims is to release rehabilitated animals back into their natural environment.

Location Release

a) Where possible, the animal will be returned to the area in which it was found. Where this is not possible due to unsuitability, overcrowding, feral animals, etc the animal is to be released into a suitable and safe habitat, in accordance with N.P.W.S. policy.

In determining the most suitable conditions for the release of an animal, consideration will be given to factors such as territory and food requirement, time of day etc. Where there are doubts, NPWS to be consulted.

Immediate Release of Animals

On attending a rescue it may be found that the animal is not sick or injured and is able to fend for itself. Experience has shown that this is not always the case, please refer to co-ordinators for advice, for we have found that shock or other injuries do not show up for days sometimes, requiring the animal to be kept in care and attending a vet before a decision is made.

Release After Rehabilitation

The authorised member should ensure:

- 1- The animal is fully rehabilitated or ready for release by seeking veterinary or other expert opinion.
- 2- Notification of co-ordinators pending release.
- 3- The animal is released into its home range or suitable environment after consultation with co-ordinator or NPWS.

Animals Unable To Be Released

After treatment where an animal is considered unable to be released, the co-ordinator or NPWS should be consulted with a view to long term care.

Euthanasia Policy

Animals should not be left to suffer or die in pain. In addition, some permanently disabled animals may be unsuitable for long term care. In such cases euthanasia should be carried out by a veterinarian. The decision to euthanase an animal will be made by the veterinary surgeon or the authorised member in consultation with the co-ordinator or NPWS.

Feral Animals Policy

It is not the aim or objective to rescue or rehabilitate feral or domestic animals. However, assistance will be given to the caller in order to alleviate suffering of the animal. Assistance may extend to rescue in cases of distress, euthanasia, or transfer to a suitable organization. It is an offense to release a feral animal.
